

Matthias Giraud, Thule Crew mountain skier and B.A.S.E jumper, stars in the extreme sport film “TIME”

Matthias Giraud, Mountain skiing and B.A.S.E jumping, and member of the Thule Crew, will take part in PVS's next extreme sport film “TIME”. The film will be shown at the if3 film festivals around the globe this autumn.

Thule Crew athlete Matthias Giraud will take part in Chamonix-based extreme sport production company PVS's new film "TIME".

“Every winter brings back its share of hope and promise
But there is nothing more complicated than a season
Limited and versatile, it counts as a treasure
A given time, which can be taken in an instant, stolen, ripped ...

This is the time we write a story with every fiber of our being
The history of these moments of shared happiness, the story of our failures
A fall which it will take time to recover from,
The story of a time that we must learn to tame.

This is the story of time for reflection and action,
Time of reunion and sharing,
Friendship and fun ...”

See the teaser here and if you have the possibility to visit any of the "if3 film festivals" in Montreal (CAN), Annecy (FR), Innsbruck (A), Whistler (CAN) or Tokyo (J), don't miss the film!
