

Thule RoundTrip Pro awarded once again for its quality and design, at 'BikeExpo' fair, Kielce, Poland

The Thule RoundTrip Pro has been one of the new products presented by Thule at bike fairs in Europe and USA over the last two months, and it has been greatly received with four very prestigious awards!

Thule RoundTrip bike travel case was first presented at this summer's two mega bike shows of the world 'Eurobike', Germany and 'Interbike', US. Since the launch, the case has been awarded with four major awards for its innovative design and functionality. It is a true example of innovation that can easily allow you to bring your bike on your journey and assemble it when you reach your destination. The recent accolade was given to the Thule RoundTrip Pro at the 'Bike Expo' exhibition in Kielce, Poland.

The Thule Roundtrip Pro and Transition models have been greatly welcomed as products that facilitate an active lifestyle by making it possible to bring your bike on your journey and easy assemble it by using the integrated bike stand. The Thule RoundTrip models were first shown at the 'Outdoor Retailer' fair, US, on August 1st where it was also selected "Best in Show" by Gear Junkie. Since then, Thule RoundTrip Pro has been awarded the Eurobike Award at Eurobike, Germany and "Best in Show" by 'BikeRadar' at Interbike in the US.

The latest acknowledgement was at the 'BikeExpo' exhibition in Kielce, Poland, where the Thule RoundTrip Pro was awarded with the Journalist Cup as "Best Product of BikeExpo 2013".

Thule's new Round Trip series offer safe and stylish solutions for bringing your bike on your journey. It will be available in retail February – March, 2014.
