Thule presents its range of luggage and travel bags at the ILM trade show in Offenbach, Germany, March 4–6, 2017

Thule, world-leading brand for helping active people bring what they care for most, will be showing luggage and travel bags at ILM (Internationale Lederwaren Messe) on March 4–6, 2017 in Offenbach, Germany.

At this year's ILM trade show, Thule is proud to introduce the new, award-winning Thule Subterra collection of high quality, sleek and contemporary travel bags and luggage. With a focus on smart design and ease of use, the Thule Subterra collection is geared towards the active business traveler.

The brand-new Thule Vea collection of sleek and versatile backpacks will undoubtedly attract urban commuters with an energetic schedule. The Thule Vea backpacks easily transition from the gym to the office with compartments designed to separate active and professional gear.

The Thule Subterra and Thule Vea collections will be accompanied by well-known Thule products like the Thule Crossover collection of rugged luggage and travel bags, and the popular Thule Chasm duffel bags.

The ILM trade show in Offenbach, Germany, is one of the largest and most important trade shows for leather goods, bags, travel items and accessories. It is expected to attract about 6,000 international trade visitors.

Thule's booth will be located in Hall B4, booth 23.
