Thule presents Thule Urban Glide 2 and Thule Glide 2, three-wheel strollers for active parents

Thule's popular and award-winning strollers Thule Urban Glide and Thule Glide have been updated with enhanced features and a design that will appeal to active parents who want to bring their kids along in urban environments as well as on nature paths.

Thule Urban Glide 2 – for active families on the go

Available in single and double version, the Thule Urban Glide 2 three-wheel stroller has a modern and lightweight design, making it perfect for an active family that enjoys the great outdoors as well as getting around town. The design includes large 16" wheels, suspension for comfort and control, and a swivel front wheel for strolling and maneuvering around town that quickly and easily locks in place for jogging or rougher terrain.

Your child will be comfortable for on-the-go naps with the help of a vented reclining seat and a large sun canopy that protects from the elements. The enclosed storage compartment also lets you safely and securely take gear with you to make the most of your day.

Thule Urban Glide 2 is available in four colors: Dark Shadow, Mars, Thule Blue, and the stylish Black on Black, a sophisticated eye-catcher. Thule Urban Glide 2 Double is available in Jet Black. For added convenience and comfort, Thule Urban Glide 2 has a range of accessories, including bassinet and click-in car seat adapter.

Thule Urban Glide 2 will be available in stores from January 2018.

Thule Glide 2 – designed for runners, built for children

Fast, lightweight, and with a fixed front wheel, large 18" wheels, and room for your kick stride, the Thule Glide2 running stroller is designed for parents to get out for a run on different types of terrain. Always with peace of mind, knowing their precious cargo is safe and comfortable.

Packed with intelligent design features, the Thule Glide2 keeps children comfortable and safe. The fully adjustable, padded harness delivers a perfect fit and the ventilated canopy protects from the elements. The rear suspension also means your child can relax and enjoy the ride, while the padded seat reclines to allow on-the-go naps.

Thule Glide 2 is available as a single stroller in Jet Black. In stores from January 2018.
