Thule Spring Stroller is awarded iF Gold Award for 2020

Each year, the world's oldest independent design organization, Hannover-based iF International Forum Design GmbH, selects the best candidates for the global competition iF DESIGN AWARD. This year, Thule is awarded the iF gold award for the Thule Spring stroller.

Thule won the top distinction in this year's iF DESIGN AWARD, the iF gold award. From 7,298 submissions, only 75 were awarded the gold by the independent expert iF jury.

The winning Thule Spring stroller is the latest addition to the Thule stroller category, joining well-known city strollers and multisport trailers such as Thule Sleek and Thule Urban Glide 2. It is a flexible, fun and functional city stroller that is designed to make daily life easier with a quick and simple one-hand fold, self standing capability and a compact footprint.

The jury released the following statement regarding its decision to issue Thule Spring the gold:

Statement by the jury

"The Thule Spring Stroller features a simple and well executed design with clean visual units. What is most striking is its intuitive functionality. The stable and robust design, with high quality, PVC-free materials and a lightweight frame is exceptionally well considered."
